Need to unwind after the seminar?

Join us for a relaxing evening walk to explore Taipei's sparkling nightscape and its fascinating urban wildlife!

2025/ 6 / 11, 17:30

Linguang metro station, EXIT 1

Comfortable walking shoes and long pants are recommended. The route includes a small hill hiking—it's not too strenuous, but trust us, you won't want to do it in dress shoes or high heels!

Be sure to pack some light snacks and water, as there won't be any food or drink available along the way.

It's not required, but if you have a flashlight, feel free to bring it. At the very least, make sure your phone is fully charged—some parts of the trail may not have streetlights, and your phone's flashlight can help with visibility.

TAIPEI BY NIGHT: URBAN NATURE TOUR

LINGUANG MRT STATION,
END OF THE EVENT

In Taipei, a city with a subtropical climate, summer nights are full of life—even in the heart of the bustling urban landscape. After several days of seminars, if you're looking for a way to unwind, why not join us for a casual urban eco-tour?

We'll take a relaxed walk through one of Taipei's well-known ecological park areas, keeping an eye out for frogs, toads, insects, and—if we're lucky—perhaps even flying squirrels or snakes. And of course, the city nightscape will be part of the experience too.
